

SOCIO-ECONOMIC DISADVANTAGED GROUPS (SEDG) CELL

INTRODUCTION

The Socio-Economic Disadvantaged Groups (SEDG) Cell of the institution is established to ensure inclusive education and equitable opportunities for students belonging to socially and economically marginalized sections of society. The cell aligns with the principles of social justice, equity, and access in higher education as emphasized by national educational policies and regulatory bodies.

OBJECTIVES

- To promote inclusive education: Ensure equal access to educational opportunities for students from socio-economically disadvantaged backgrounds.
- To provide academic support: Organize remedial classes, mentoring, bridge courses, and academic guidance to help students cope with academic challenges.
- To facilitate financial assistance: Guide students in availing scholarships, freehips, government schemes, fee concessions, and other financial aid.
- To create awareness about welfare schemes: Disseminate information regarding institutional, state, and central government welfare programs for disadvantaged groups.
- To ensure a discrimination-free environment: Promote respect, equality, and dignity within the campus by preventing social exclusion and discriminatory practices.
- To provide counseling and emotional support: Offer mentoring and counseling services to address stress, social pressure, and adjustment issues.
- To reduce dropout rates: Identify students at risk of discontinuing their education and provide necessary interventions and support.
